

QLK

TROX displacement diffusers of the QLK series are employed primarily in the commercial sector. The cool supply air is introduced into the room at low discharge velocities and very low turbulence, according to the displacement principle.

The series comprises 3 different variants in highly tasteful design.

Product Description

TROX displacement diffusers of the QLK series are employed primarily in the commercial sector. The cool supply air is introduced into the room at low discharge velocities and very low turbulence, according to the displacement principle.

The series comprises 3 different variants in highly tasteful design.